

Welcome to Century Florida

From its rich history as a tightly-knit sawmill town to its evolution into a center of opportunity for modern industry, Century blends America's "small-town" values with unsurpassed natural resources and proximity to world-class education, health care and transportation.

Here you'll find a doctor that still makes house calls, as well as patent-holders, retired military, farmers and business executives, many of whose families have lived in Century for generations.

About the Town of Century

The Town of Century is located in the northwestern "panhandle" of Florida, in close proximity to regional and international airports, a deep seaport, military bases, CSX rail and Interstates 65, 10 and 110. Award-winning beaches, world class shopping, a new waterfront stadium, fine arts, minor...

Read More

View PDF